

State of Nevada Internship

Nevada Public Radio is looking for a dynamic and hard-working student intern to work with our State of Nevada Radio Program. This internship gives experience in the production of a daily talk show for an NPR-affiliated public affairs program.

Why intern with us? KNPR's State of Nevada is Nevada Public Radio's flagship news and public affairs program, serving more than 100,000 listeners during its broadcast. Airing on the urban and rural network of Nevada Public Radio, we cover 93 percent of the state, parts of southern California, Arizona and Utah. The hyper-local program features interviews, commentaries, and analysis of many subjects of interest to Nevadans.

Summary

- The intern will work mornings for the duration of 12-15 weeks (one semester)
- Schedule can be customizable for each intern as long as approved
- This is a paid position at $10.00 per hour for 12 hours maximum a week
- The intern would report to the Senior Producer

What to Expect

The intern will assist producers with their work before and during the show is on the air. These tasks may include:

- Producing segments for the award-winning talk show, "State of Nevada"
- Operating the board during live and recorded segments.
- Occasionally hosting a radio segment.
- Assisting with research.
- Taking part in marketing efforts for the station, which might include video or voice overs.
- The intern will also participate in editorial meetings, suggest ideas for guest and show segments.

Requirements

- The intern must supply a resume and cover letter expressing interest in the internship program.
- Enrollment in a print and/or radio journalism and media degree program is preferred. If also interning for academic credit, this must be communicated up-front and approval must be obtained from intern's university and Nevada Public Radio. If a minimum amount of hours are required for academic credit, this will need to be communicated and approved before internship starts.

PLEASE NOTE: All Nevada Public Radio employees and interns must receive both doses of the Moderna or Pfizer COVID-19 vaccine, or the single-dose Johnson & Johnson COVID-19 vaccine, unless granted an exemption for medical or religious reasons.

Nevada Public Radio is an equal opportunity employer committed to a diverse and inclusive work environment. If selected for an interview, you will be contacted by our Human Resources Manager.
